Today Stacey took our grand-dog Gidget to the vet for her kennel cough and rabies inoculations. She was so excited to be going for a ride! When she got there, she was so excited to have so many people paying attention to her. She really is an attention hog! She was so excited that she hardly noticed the tiny pin prick of her shot. I mean what dog has time to worry about a little tiny needle when there is lots of petting followed by treats!

How many of us get so excited by a trip in the car, especially during the winter months? Most of us don't walk into a doctor's office with our metaphorical tails wagging either. All of the little irritants of life, especially during cold winter months, are not met with friendly nonchalant-ness with an expectation that even though something difficult or (mildly) painful is happening, something better is waiting? I have come to realize that my life would be so much better if I engaged it with the same simple enthusiasm as Gidget. Be happy that I have somewhere to go, be excited when people want to see me, don't fret over the small stuff, because something good is coming my way. Ecclesiastes 8:15 So I commend the enjoyment of life, because there is nothing better for a person under the sun than to eat and drink and be glad. Then joy will accompany them in their toil all the days of the life God has given them under the sun (NIV)

Grace and Peace to you all!
Pastor David J. Martin

North Church Readers

The North Church Readers invites you to join us for any or all of the books! Our Sixth selection this season is The Secret Chord, by Geraldine Brooks.

A complete history of David from obscurity to fame, from shepherd to soldier, from hero to traitor, from brilliant poet, glorious musician, and glamorous young tyrant into an ailing and remorseful old age.

The Secret Chord reinterprets the well-known episodes of David's life and foregrounds other, even more remarkable and emotionally intense episodes that have been largely neglected.

Discussion will follow the church service on March 18. We meet in the library directly after church. Grab your coffee or tea and join us for a good discussion and good friendship. Hope to see you there!

See Jackie if you have any questions.

Our 2018 Mission Trip to the Gullah Islands:

We plan on departing on March 2 and return back home on March 11.

We are welcoming any donations for our Mission Trip to the Gullah Islands. (Make sure to put in memo for Mission Trip). Help us make a difference!

An excerpt from Jackie Abbott’s October Tidings article on the mission trip:

The money goes to purchase supplies to repair and revitalize the homes of the Gullah Nation. Those North Church members who will go on the mission trip will be expected to provide their own travel and support funds.

Who are the people called Gullahs? The term was originally used to designate the creole dialect of English spoken by Gullah or Geechee people. Taken as slaves mainly from West Africa’s rice growing regions, the people were enslaved and brought to the Carolinas, Georgia and northern Florida, and especially on the coastal plain and on the offshore Sea Islands, where rice growing was a very lucrative industry. In the steamy tropical climate the plantation families would leave the humid and insect infested areas in the summer and left the slaves and overseers to tend the crops. Following the Civil War and freedom the African and later others remained on the islands. Because of the isolated nature of the Sea Islands and the freedom to live as they wished they adopted many of the customs of their West African roots. A unique culture exists that includes language, crafts, farming and fishing traditions, folk beliefs, music, rice-based cuisine and story telling traditions, all exhibiting a strong influence from Central and West African cultures. More than a century later the Gullahs continue to fight with the government to preserve, protect and promote their history, culture, language, and homeland from being taken over for commercial development. Their homes are always in need of repair and revitalization. The goal of those who will travel there will be doing such work.

Those from North who travel to the Gullah nation will be rewarded with a rich cultural experience as well as an awareness of the struggles these Americans deal with every day to hang on to their lifestyle and culture. What an opportunity for our members to serve and learn.

Substitute Sunday School Teachers Needed!!

Please consider participating in this ministry when our Sunday School Teachers or our Nursery leaders are unable to teach. We would hate to have to cancel Sunday School because we do not have a teacher. Curriculum is easy to follow.

Teachers Needed!

Please prayerfully consider being on our substitute teacher list. If you would like to shadow a teacher one morning, please let us know!

Sign-up in the Memorial Room.
