Reconciling Ministries News

Thanks to the generosity of our congregation the Reconciling Ministries Committee has received several donations that bring our balance to over $2,000. Thank you to everyone who has supported the committee with their donations of time, prayer and money.

The committee has decided to contribute $500 to True Colors, Inc. to assist with their work in counseling and mentoring LGBTQ+ youth who face additional challenges amidst the loss of their usual support systems due to the restrictions imposed by the pandemic.

True Colors is a non-profit organization that works with other social service agencies, schools, organizations, and within communities to ensure that the needs of sexual and gender minority youth are both recognized and competently met. The organization trains more than 2400 people annually, organizes the largest LGBT youth conference in the country with more than 3000 attendees and manages the state's only LGBT mentoring program. True Colors has been spotlighted by both national and local media for their expertise in LGBTI youth issues.

Pastor Dave has scheduled zoom meetings for the next few months for online worship. Worship will still happen in the sanctuary of Bolton at 9 am. Andy and Pastor Dave set up "cameras" to best capture what is happening. You can join the scheduled meeting as early as 8:30 and your mics will be live if you choose so you can talk among everyone who is tuned in. At 9 am, the mics will be muted. During worship, collective prayers (call to worship etc.) will be shown on your screen.

The link for worship is: <https://us04web.zoom.us/j/268830607>

This link should be good for every Sunday.

Alternatively you can call in, and enter the meeting number so you can join only by phone. Those who do not have a smart phone or computer with internet can still participate!

Introducing WAMS (Wellness And Multiple Sclerosis)!

WAMS is a positive and affirming group that focuses on living well with MS. This group is co-led by North Members Heidi Lenhardt, National MS Society Support Leader and Vickie Hadge, Overcoming MS (OMS) Ambassador. If you are newly diagnosed, have been living with MS for years, or are an MS care partner WAMS welcomes you! WAMS is a friendly, non-judgmental and safe place where privacy is protected. No matter where you are on your MS wellness journey we encourage members to “do whatever it takes” to live well to be the healthiest they can be while living with MS.

Wellness and MS (WAMS) will be meeting online every Sunday at 4:30 PM ET for as long as needed in Zoom. If you are an MS patient, a care partner, or family member of someone with MS please feel free to share. Have people reach out to me via Facebook or at my email vlhadge@yahoo.com for details. <https://overcomingms.org/community/find-support/>.

If you have questions please speak with or email Vickie vlhadge@yahoo.com or Heidi wellnessandms@yahoo.com.

Music Ministry Message

"We are creators, improvisers, innovators. We can't control the nature of the coronavirus, but we can respond to it with imagination and determination."

While researching recently I read this quote from Roger Brown; the president of Berklee College of Music. I think that it addresses, in a nutshell, the challenges facing all musicians and humans in general going forward in a new and fundamentally changed world. Over the past several weeks the choirs have been meeting Wednesday evenings for a 'virtual rehearsal' in Zoom online (its odd though- that I don't ever recall having wine at our regular rehearsals!!). We share humor, concerns and news about our families and friends. We compliment each others' experimental haircuts, and grouse a bit about how much we miss our music and the face to face contact that we are conditioned from infancy to need to thrive as human beings. We celebrate life's little sparkles of normalcy: people getting married, babies (and lambs) being born, flooded basements, you name it. It is a reminder to us all that 'this too shall pass' and that our humility and patience in our fight to conquer this pandemic will eventually be rewarded.

We read the old Testament accounts in the Bible, from the Ark to the Exodus and never really take the time to wonder 'what was it like' for Zion as her people suffered patiently through various trials and tribulations. Forty

Bible Study

Online Bible studies continue while we are distanced following the lectionary readings for the week. Tuesdays at 6:30 (meeting code 440 071 613) the New Testament readings are discussed and Fridays at 3:30 (meeting code 177 986 590) is for the Old Testament and the Psalm. Watch email or Facebook for the particular readings or check the lectionary for the week.

Online Giving

Online giving is available at:

<http://www.simplechurchgiving.net/northumc>

or scan the QR code shown below to go to the site. Set up an account and conveniently schedule your routine giving. Never miss another month or have to remember your checkbook. One time donations can be made as well. Selecting 'Bank Account' rather than 'Credit Card' costs NUMC the least in fees, but of course all donations are welcome.

Please contact us if you have any questions about online giving. Thank You!

The North Church Readers

Our sixth selection of our season is called Educated by Tara Westover. From mainstream society that there was no one to ensure the children receives an education, and no one to intervene when one of Tara's older brother became violent. When an other brother got himself into college, Tara decided to try a new kind of life. Her quest for knowledge transformed her, taking her over oceans and across continents, to Harvard and to Cambridge University. Only then would she wonder if she's traveled too far, if there was still a way home.

Discussion postponed, TBD.

We meet in the library directly after church. Grab your coffee or tea and join us for a good discussion and good friendship. Hope to see you there!

Ask Jackie if you have any questions.

years? Not a long time when its happening to someone else, but 4 weeks in quarantine does seem pretty interminable. Those who accounted the Bible stories we read though- now they knew about scarcity. They understood hardship and suffering. They looked to a god to deliver them and, sometimes I think that, were they dropped into what was until recently our present day life, they would probably believe that they had reached the promised land.

We have had it pretty good. We still have it pretty good. Things have changed, yes, we have had hearts broken, lost loved ones and seen fear and uncertainty that most of us have never experienced in our lifetimes. Some of you might remember last summer when I began a theme of 'perspectives' and we had congregants come before you and share meaningful messages from their point of view. This pandemic has really brought that point home to me. As I read stories from all over the world of people stepping up and making a difference, doing acts of kindness, fighting this disease on the front lines, feeding the hungry and caring for the helpless, I am moved by how many have looked beyond their differences to see through the communal lens of compassion. The earth Herself is healing as humanity takes a breather from scurrying through our lives at breakneck pace and stops long enough to hug our kids, hear a bluebird warble or watch a bumblebee defy physics by simply staying airborne.

We are creators, improvisers, innovators.... We are created in God's image; it doesn't get better than that!! We have God to thank for the talent, intelligence, and ingenuity we possess to beat this pandemic and those trials that lay ahead. One of them will be to bring our live worship back, music and all-which we will. The format may be a bit changed, but we will create, improvise and innovate something meaningful that connects us face to face, as a family and a community again.

I shall do everything in my power to ensure that my music ministers (you) are safe, as is the congregation. You are my family and we keep our families safe! I look forward to the day when we are all making music together again!!
